- H.E.Prof. Louay Saad El-Din Nasrat - Vice President of Aswan University for Education and Student Affairs.

The Social Solidarity Unit at Aswan University launched a program under the slogan "For Our Future" to raise awareness about the dangers of population expansion. The program began its activities with a workshop and discussion session with volunteer students about the population issue and awareness messages to be distributed to their colleagues, ensuring that the volunteer is knowledgeable in what he is aware of. Then, the volunteer youth from the Egyptian Volunteer Bank and the Social Solidarity Unit of Aswan University set out to spread the following simple messages:

- Early marriage is a crime against children (No early marriage).
- Choosing a life partner ensures the success of our family life and the ability to overcome any challenges that may arise.
- Health education and keeping up with the latest developments in family health (reproductive health).
- What differentiates birth control from family planning.

Birth control: is stopping pregnancy permanently at a certain number of children without a valid excuse, and in this sense it is not permissible according to Islamic law. As for family planning: it is spacing out periods of pregnancy for a valid excuse, such as preserving the mother's health and other excuses. (there is a big difference between family planning and birth control).

The unit was interested in visiting this great edifice to increase the knowledge and experience of its volunteers from the Egyptian Volunteer Bank. The visit began with a warm reception from the library officials, Mr. Bishoy Nashat - Deputy Director of the Library. And Mr. Atef Abed - Head of Marketing Department. Their Excellencies kindly accompanied the volunteers inside the library halls and explained the services provided inside it, including:

Get to know the Egyptian Public Library, its history, and the number of libraries spread throughout the Republic.

A general description of the library building.

Get to know the children's library and its contents.

Get to know the large age library and see what it contains of books and sections.

Get to know the various activities offered by the library, such as seminars, storytelling workshops, training, learning courses, and many other different innovations.

So, sincere thanks and appreciation to the gentlemen responsible for this great cultural edifice, and we would like to mention in particular:

Mr.Mohab Hassan – Graphic Specialists in Misr Public Library in Aswan.

Mr. Atef Abed – Marketing Officer in Misr Public Library in Aswan

Mr. Beshoy Nashaat - Deputy Director of the Egyptian Public Library in Aswan.

Mrs.Soher Mekky – Manager of Misr Public Library in Aswan
