5. Success story

A new success story

Muhammad Hamam is 21 years old and is a final year student at the Faculty of Law

The story began with the Employment Skills course at the University Center for Career Development

In less than a month, he was one of the first to participate with us in all of the center's activities and progressed to become a part of the wonderful volunteer team.

He took the english course and I benefited very much. He trained, strived, succeeded, and decided to start his career and benefit from all the experiences that he lived in the center

He presented at the employment fair and got a lot of experience and knew the labor market what it needs to work on itself better

He wrote his resume carefully after he attended the workshop at the center, in order to add to it all that he learned

And with all this, praise be to, he is very excellent in his studiesHe has hobbies and is a talented artist

He was offered great job opportunities in charge of managing a language and courses center. He had a concern, but by following the professional development specialist and taking professional advice, he did not hesitate and had a problem in how to form a work team, but he could solve the problem.

Currently, he reached a very high position in a short period of time as director of a center for languages and courses, and from Zero experience, the field is to know a lot of information in this field
