

The Department of Educational Media's theatre team participated in the Egyptian Japanese School's celebration in Aswan

Within the framework of the faculty's community participation and in fulfillment of its mission for serving the local community, under the auspices of Prof. Radi Abdel Majeed Taha, Dean of the Faculty, and Under the supervision of Dr. Hisham Al-Fouli, Head of the Educational Media Department, and Mr. Mostafa Mahmoud-Lecturer in the department- the theatre team has participated in the celebration held by the Egyptian School Japanese in Aswan on the occasion of the start of the new academic year, where the team was performed a puppet show, which was well received by the audience.

Dr. Safaa Hamed, the celebration's head of school, remarked on the Faculty of Special Education's important role and participation. She also expressed her desire for ongoing collaboration with the faculty to serve the educational process in the Egyptian Japanese Schools in Aswan.

